Three until Six O'clock

Casa de la Guerra

The Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation (SBTHP) proudly presents the 3rd annual “Vinos, Tapas y Arte.” On Saturday, September 27, 2008, SBTHP will celebrate its only major fundraiser of the year at the historic social center of Santa Barbara—Casa de la Guerra.

The Casa has been at the heart of Santa Barbara’s history since its construction in the 1820s. Built by Presidio Comandant José de la Guerra, the Casa was the economic, political and social center of the pueblo of Santa Barbara. Today the restored home is a museum featuring original furnishings, a history of the de la Guerra family, and unique temporary exhibitions.

Guests enjoying Vinos, Tapas, y Arte 2007 in the Plaza de Alhecama.

“Vinos, Tapas y Arte 2008” will be an excellent way to showcase your business while simultaneously supporting a worthy cause. At the event, over 200 guests will sample from a wonderful group of six vintners, restaurants, and caterers who will offer their best wine and gourmet food. Live music will set the scene as talented local artists donate their work for exhibition and sale, and silent auction items tempt guest’s shopping willpower. The cost for tickets will be $100 per person.

You can help by providing gift certificates, event tickets, or items for our silent auction. The SBTHP will appropriately display your donated item(s) and promotional material on one of the silent auction tables. You are encouraged to provide business cards or brochures to increase your business or organizations visibility and presence at the event.
