Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation Announces Interim Executive Director Sally Fohse

(SANTA BARBARA, CA) – The Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation (SBTHP) Board President Terease Chin and the Board of Trustees are pleased to announce the appointment of Sally Fohse as Interim Executive Director. She will serve as Executive Director until a new director is selected. In addition to being Interim Executive Director, Fohse currently serves as Associate Director for Business Affairs for the Trust. She can be reached at (805) 966-1279 or sally@sbthp.org.

ABOUT Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation (SBTHP)— For over fifty years the Santa Barbara Trust for Historic Preservation (SBTHP) has worked to protect, preserve, restore, reconstruct, and interpret historic sites in Santa Barbara County. Founded in 1963 by Dr. Pearl Chase and other concerned community leaders, SBTHP operates El Presidio de Santa Bárbara State Historic Park—Santa Barbara's 18th century birthplace—under a unique agreement with California State Parks. The State has purchased the building that housed Jimmy's Oriental Gardens, providing an opportunity to interpret the history of Santa Barbara's Asian American community in the Presidio Neighborhood. SBTHP owns and operates Casa de la Guerra, the 1820s home of Presidio Comandante José de la Guerra and his family—the restored home is now a museum featuring original furnishings and rotating exhibits. In 2009, SBTHP signed an agreement with State Parks to manage and develop the Santa Inés Mission Mills, located near the town of Solvang, as a future California State Park. In 2011, SBTHP was awarded the Trustees' Emeritus Award for Excellence in the Stewardship of Historic Sites by the National Trust for Historic Preservation. With the help of continuing education programs and exhibits, SBTHP strives to encourage community involvement and foster an appreciation for Santa Barbara County's distinctive history. Learn more at www.sbthp.org.
